

ETOBICOKE COMMUNITY CONCERT BAND

OPEN REHEARSAL!

The Etobicoke Community Concert Band invites you to sit in on an open rehearsal. We are more than 40 musical friends and neighbours who play pops-to-Prokofiev, with a big dose of swing. Bringing thrilling programming to Etobicoke since 1995, the group is directed by John Liddle, who lights up the podium with his high energy and passion for community music-making.

In addition to the concert band, the group offers performance opportunities for smaller ensembles - jazz combo, flute choir, woodwind quintet, brass quintet - as well as its renowned big band, the Etobicoke Swing Orchestra.

Last year's big bang of a grand finale was the 1812 Overture; this year we kick it off with Octoberfest - it's going to be a great one. If you are a player comfortable with challenging music and interested in performing, come read through some repertoire and check out the fun.
