

ETOBICOKE COMMUNITY CONCERT BAND

153 Royalavon Cr., Etobicoke, ON M9A 2G5 (416) 410-1570 www.eccb.ca

April 2007

Throughout this season, the Etobicoke Community Concert Band's Rising Stars series of concerts has centered on the talents of some remarkable young performers – guests on our concert stage who are destined for professional music careers in Canada.

Now, be blown away! On Friday, May 11, our BRITISH BLAST! marks the thundering grand finale of our Rising Stars series, turning the guest spotlight on the acclaimed HANNAFORD YOUTH BAND.

The Hannaford Youth Band is a youth development program of the Hannaford Street Silver Band, the Toronto-based professional brass ensemble of worldwide renown. The Youth Band is comprised of avid music students, mostly university aged, who strive to develop professional music skills through the preparation and performance of challenging and exciting repertoire.

BRITISH BLAST! will run the whole musical gamut from sentimental to majestic plus some good old rock 'n' roll - folk songs from the British Isles, Spitfire Prelude, best of the Beatles. Guest soprano Mary Duquesnay will reminisce with a wartime singalong medley. Hannaford's award-winning 18-year-old trumpeter Rob Weymouth will dazzle with his rendition of "Carnival of Venice". And the hall will roar with our massed band (nearly 100 musicians in total!) performing Tchaikovsky's magnificent "1812 Overture", including a line of bass drums loaded with local celebrities.
