FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WANTED ... COMMUNITY MUSICIANS!

ATTENTION ALL COMMUNITY MUSICIANS IN THE GREATER TORONTO AREA. The Etobicoke Community Concert Band and Music Director John Liddle warmly invite you to join in the fun and fulfillment of community music-making!

On Wednesday, September 20th, the Etobicoke Community Concert Band presents an OPEN REHEARSAL to entice community musicians to sit in, and hopefully get hooked, on the musical excitement of this vibrant community band.

The Etobicoke Community Concert Band draws together enthusiastic musicians of all ages (teens to octogenarians) from Etobicoke and across the GTA. Since inception in 1995, the Etobicoke Community Concert Band has become revered as an ensemble of high caliber and thrilling programming. Music Director John Liddle brings high energy and high standards of musicianship to the podium, tempered by a passionate sense of the value of music-making at the community level. In addition to the 40-member concert band, the organization offers performance opportunities for small ensembles - jazz combo, flute choir, woodwind quintet, brass quintet – as well as its renowned big band, the Etobicoke Swing Orchestra.

Fall programming plans include an “Etobicoke Swings” concert on October 27 and 28, and “Etobicoke Pops” Christmas concert in December. The band rehearses weekly, Wednesday evenings, in the auditorium of Etobicoke Collegiate.

GET ON THE “BAND” WAGON! ALL PLAYERS (woodwinds, brass, percussion) ARE WELCOME.
