February 2009

The British are coming!

With much pomp, circumstance and flagwaving, the Etobicoke Community Concert Band presents a nostalgic musical tribute to all things British. From the Folk Songs of the British Isles to the mania of the Beatles and the intrigue of James Bond, we also draw on our audience to raise their voices (and flags!) for the stalwarts of the “Proms” tradition—Land of Hope and Glory, Thine is the Glory, and Jerusalem.

As guest artist for this night of the Brits, we welcome mezzo-soprano Pamela MacDonald. Pamela’s opera and oratorio work is critically acclaimed across Canada and the United States, having performed with the Canadian Opera Company, Opera Ontario, Toledo Opera and with conductors Boris Brodt and Richard Bradshaw. Pamela’s vocal dexterity and dazzling stage persona landed her a 3-year stint in the cast of the Toronto production of Phantom of the Opera. A native of Dartmouth, Nova Scotia, Pamela has made her home and work in west Toronto and is thrilled to be waving her British flag with the Etobicoke Community Concert Band.

To reserve tickets to our ever popular “Last Night of the Proms”, complete the enclosed Order Form or call our Box Office. We look forward to a grand musical night in the finest British tradition. See you March 6th!
